What We Do

The Whole Picture, LLC is proud to offer marketing, social media, photography and design work—for the horse world and beyond. We share YOUR story—getting the word out with images and video.

Social Media

Scheduling posts focused on engagement and packed with images and video

Social Ads

Targeting online ads to the right people—moving traffic to your site, creating clients

PR/ Journalism

Creating, editing and delivering your message to the press in a style that gets printed

Photography

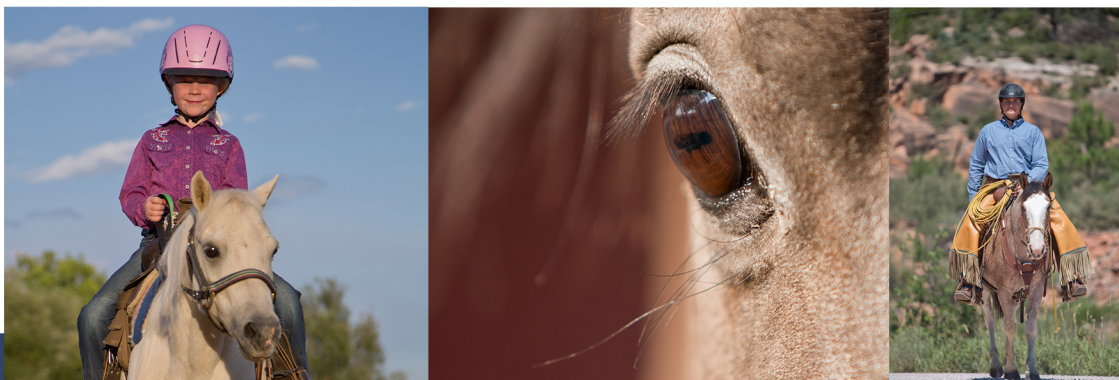

Producing the images you need— setting up scenes for action or studio shots

Videography

High-definition video with the production and direction skills to make it look sharp

Design

Business cards to banners in print; eblasts, memes, headers and websites online
